Montana Grain Growers Association and Montana Grains Foundation Offer Scholarships

Great Falls – The Montana Grain Growers Association (MGGA) and the Montana Grains Foundation (MGF) will each offer two scholarships to be used for the 2015-2016 school year.

MGGA will award two $1,000 scholarships to students pursuing an agricultural related degree at the college of their choice. Applicants or their parent, grandparent, or legal guardian must be a current producer member of MGGA.

MGF will award two $2,000 scholarships to Montana State University juniors, seniors or graduate students pursuing agricultural degrees in specific disciplines.

Applications must be received no later than April 1, 2015, and the winners will be announced on May 1. More information and application forms are available by calling the MGGA office at 406-761-4596 or online at www.mgga.org.

The Montana Grain Growers Association is the primary trade organization representing Montana wheat and barley producers who, by combining their strengths, voices, and ideas, are working to insure a better future for themselves, their industry and the consumer.
