MGGA Elects Officers and Sets Policy for 2020

Great Falls – At the conclusion of this year’s annual Convention & Trade Show in Great Falls, attended by more than 800 farmers, agribusiness representatives and guests, the Montana Grain Growers Association elected new officers, installed directors and set the organization’s policy for 2020.

Vince Mattson, Chester, was elected as MGGA President for the coming year. Other officers include Vice President Mitch Konen, Fairfield; Treasurer Tryg Koch, Kalispell; and Secretary Nathan Keane, Loma. Lyle Benjamin, Sunburst, will serve a year as Past President.

Re-elected for a second four-year term on the MGGA Board of Directors are Chad Forest, Richland, District 1; Nathan Keane, Loma, District 5; and Kurt Voss, Circle, District 13.

Newly elected Directors include Randy Ridgeway, Stanford, District 9; Raymond Keller, Turner, District 3; and Dale Flikkema, Bozeman, District 11.

Convention marks the annual meeting of MGGA members who debate and approve the policy platform that guides the organization on issues affecting our industry. Approved resolutions can be found on the MGGA website at www.mgga.org/policy/.
